Reunite at Mount Angel's Oktoberfest

Families and Friends Enjoy Area Festival as an Opportunity to Connect

For four days, starting the second Thursday after Labor Day, the Mount Angel Oktoberfest will be the just the right place in the Willamette Valley for a reunion. Large Family reunions have become a tradition during Oktoberfest. Groups can take advantage of wholesome entertainments at the variety of venues, making the festival a suitable gathering for all ages. Oktoberfest boasts over 50 Alpine food chalets, serving a wide variety of ethnic foods. Family organizers can invite all their relatives with confidence, as everyone visiting Oktoberfest should find samples of their favorite food and beverages to enjoy.

Childhood friends often meet at Oktoberfest to share remembrances from past festivals, and marvel at the many hours they once spent practicing and honing their skills so they might join the community of talented performers and craftsmen who delight Oktoberfest guests each year with entertainment and displays of alpine traditions.

Oktoberfest has a 44 year history of families and friends coming together with their Mount Angel hosts to celebrate Bavarian harvest traditions. Busy families won't regret setting aside those exhaustive schedules, and taking loved ones by the hand to join our Mount Angel Family for quality food, fun and festivities at Oktoberfest 2009.
